Object Clause:

A bill for an act to allow the creation of state-regulated medical marijuana licensed dispensaries. Allowing these licensed dispensaries to produce, purchase, possess and dispense marijuana and marijuana related products to state-qualified patients and other licensed dispensaries.

A BILL

For an act relating to licensing of dispensaries to distribute marijuana to state-qualified patients.

Be it enacted by the people of the State of Nebraska,

Section 1. For purposes of sections 1 to 11 of this act:

(1) Dispensary means a for-profit corporation or person pursuant to section 49-801 of the Nebraska Statutes whose sole purpose is to dispense marijuana, marijuana infused products, and marijuana paraphernalia;

(2) Marijuana infused product means any product that is manufactured and contains cannabinoids in the finished product; and

(3) State-qualified patient means a patient who has been issued a medical card from the Department of Health and Human Services allowing him or her to use marijuana for approved medical conditions.

Sec. 2.

A dispensary shall be licensed by the Department of Health and Human Services, shall pay a licensing fee of one thousand dollars and may dispense marijuana, marijuana infused products, and marijuana paraphernalia to state-qualified patients and other licensed dispensaries from a designated business location.

Sec. 3.

The Department of Health and Human Services will be tasked with enforcing licensing violations.

Sec. 4.

Marijuana or marijuana infused products sold from a dispensary are exempt from Section 77-4301 to 77-4316 of the Nebraska Statutes.

Sec. 5.

A licensed dispensary may possess up to six mature marijuana plants, eighteen marijuana seedlings, and twenty-four ounces of dispensable marijuana for each state qualified patient who has registered with the dispensary.

Sec. 6.

A state-qualified patient may register with a licensed dispensary and shall give six months notice to change dispensaries, allowing the dispensary time to register a new state-qualified patient or remove the patient's plants from the dispensary.

Sec. 7.

A licensed dispensary is required to maintain an accurate list of registered state-qualified patients.

Sec. 8.

A licensed dispensary may sell marijuana or marijuana infused products to any state-qualified patient. State-qualified patients may purchase marijuana or marijuana infused products from any licensed dispensary.

Sec. 9.

All marijuana sold in the dispensary shall be clearly labeled with the applicable ratio of tetrahydrocannabinol, cannabidiol, and cannabitol contained in the marijuana.

Sec. 10.

A licensed dispensary may grow its own marijuana but also may purchase marijuana from another licensed dispensary or caregiver for the purpose of dispensing to a state-qualified patient.

Sec. 11.

A licensed dispensary may make marijuana-infused products, but also may purchase marijuana-infused products from a distributor, caregiver, manufacturer, or other licensed person.
